

THE MEASLES ARE HERE.

STEVENSON'S SERVANT HAS THEM.

Sans Souci's Windmill Cottage Quarantined—The English Novelist Must Fumigate.

A special meeting of the Board of Health was held this morning at 9:30 o'clock, at which the following members were present: President Smith, T. F. Lansing, Dr. G. P. Andrews, J. Ena, C. B. Reynolds and Drs. Howard and Cooper, whose presence had been requested to consider the steps necessary for the prevention of the spread of measles, brought here by the steamer Mariposa.

President W. O. Smith called the meeting to order, after which he stated that the object was to decide on what steps it was deemed advisable to take in the matter of quarantining the known cases of measles at present existing.

Executive Officer Reynolds was called upon by the President for a statement of the number of cases coming to his notice, and replied that so far as he knew there was but one case, and that was at Sans Souci. The Samoan servant of Robert Louis Stevenson, Mr. Reynolds said, had the measles, and was confined to the windmill cottage and isolated from the other guests of the place. He stated further that he had visited the patient and ordered sulphur sent out for fumigation purposes, and had left instructions to have the man's clothes boiled.

This will be an easy task, as the servant in question has a deep seated and lasting abhorrence for clothing, his wearing apparel ordinarily consisting of a breech cloth, and for some time previous to his visit here, the author had his man in daily training for trousers, which garment he despises with his whole soul.

Mr. Reynolds stated that when the steamer China was in port, Dr. Trousdale had told him that he was then treating a case of measles, but Dr. Andrews said the physician in question had telephoned him this morning that he had known of but two or three cases during the past year or more.

No one present had heard of more than the one case, and it was difficult to see just why there should be any public excitement regarding the measles, but President Smith stated that there was a good deal of feeling in the matter, and it was therefore considered expedient to take some decided action.

Mr. Reynolds said he had placed no officer in charge because it had never been the rule to quarantine against measles, and it had not been deemed necessary in this case. The visiting physicians were asked for an opinion and were unanimous in the view that to establish any regular quarantine would result in making Honolulu the laughing stock of the world.

Mr. Smith asked if it would be necessary to quarantine Robert Louis as well as his servant, and Dr. Cooper thought not. Others were of the opinion that he should be quarantined for a period of fifteen days at least. A vote was taken on the question which resulted in favor of the establishment of a quarantine of both the author and servant. This was afterwards amended to take effect against the servant only, and Robert Louis may now enjoy his liberty and the right to pursue the even tenor of his way, provided he fumigates himself and does not visit his servant in his sanitary retreat. Mr. Stevenson may now conclude that there are worse things in this world than even newspaper reporters who represent him "before taking."

Mr. Reynolds was instructed to place a pair of large-sized guards over the measles retreat of the suffering Samoan, with instructions to guard him night and day.

Port Physician Andrews asked for instructions regarding his mode of procedure regarding entering vessels with disease on board, such as measles, whooping cough, etc. The rules of the Board of Health were brought out and it was found that no provision had ever been made for such cases, the general practice in the past having been to instruct arriving passengers to report all cases of sickness breaking out within a few days of their arrival to the health officer.

After some further discussion it was decided to instruct the Port Physician in a general way to proceed in future on the same general lines.

Vessels hereafter having measles or kindred diseases on board will be compelled to keep all infected through passengers on the ship whether in the saloon or steerage, and all passengers coming to this port will be requested to quarantine themselves and report to the Board of Health.

After deciding that a letter signed by the local physicians, treating of measles and the symptoms, and the best preventative means to be adopted should be published, and would go far towards dispelling the wholly uncalculated feeling of uneasiness, the meeting adjourned, Mr. Reynolds promising to send a couple of able bodied men to guard the case at Sans Souci, without loss of time.

CIRCUIT COURT NOTES.

Demurrers in Two Cases Heard by Judge Whiting.

In the case of David Watson et al vs. Joseph P. Mendonca, an equity petition for the appointment of a commissioner to settle a real estate dispute, argument on the demurrer of defendant was had yesterday before Judge

Whiting. W. C. Achi for plaintiffs and Cecil Brown for defendants. The demurrer was taken under advisement. The case of Sam Haano et al vs. Charles Kuaiki on demurrer was also heard by Judge Whiting and taken under advisement. This is a suit to oust the defendant from the management of a native partnership and force an accounting. Achi, Johnson and Castle for plaintiffs, and Brown for defendant.

The petition to revoke the order of probate in the estate of A. Akali comes up on Monday, also the hearing of the administrator's accounts and petition for discharge in the estate of J. W. Apunui.

HAWAII'S HIDDEN ENEMIES.

Strife Being Fomented by Half-Breeds and Demagogues.

O. P. Emerson, corresponding secretary of the Hawaiian Evangelical Association, and his brother, J. S. Emerson, a civil engineer of Honolulu, who was in the Government Surveying Department of the deposed Queen Liliuokalani, in a communication to the Cal, desire to qualify some statements embodied in an interview published in the issue of the 1st inst.

The communication says: "The fears of the Chinese have doubtless been worked upon by certain designing and unscrupulous members of the anti-annexation party."

"It may be true that there are Chinese who are agitating against annexation, and it is reported that blackmail was levied on some of them in connection with the trial of agitators who closed the doors of those churches whose pastors were in favor of annexation. Discard has not been fomented or blackmail levied by the Japanese residents, but this has been the work of halfbreeds and designing demagogues. It is not strictly true that the standing army of two hundred could be increased one hundredfold, but it may be said truly that hundreds would, at any time, take up arms at the call of the Provisional Government.—The Call, Sept. 3.

Another Concert To-night.

Professor Berger and the Hawaiian band are furnishing the public with plenty of music this week. Another concert has been arranged for to-night at Thomas square, commencing at 7:30, when the following pieces will be given:

 3. Waltz—"Tou Paris".....Waldteufel
 4. Selection—"Il Trovatore" (by request).....Verdi
- PART II.
5. Selection—"Bohemian Girl" (by request).....Halle
 6. Echo piece—"In Switzerland" (by request).....Hume
 7. Waltz—"The Dolls".....Bayer
 8. Galop—"Brave Ahead".....Strauss

The Fire Police.

The members of the old Fire Police Company met at the rooms of the Annexation Club last night for the purpose of winding up the financial affairs of the company and dissolving. After considerable discussion a committee of three was appointed to interview Henry Smith, secretary and treasurer of the old Fire Department, and endeavor to reach some agreement by which the assets of the Fire Police Company now in his hands could be turned over for distribution among the members. The meeting then adjourned until Saturday evening at 7:30, at the same place, when the committee is expected to report.

Y. M. C. A. Concert.

The concert arranged by the Glee Club for the Y. M. C. A. library comes off at the hall of the association tomorrow night at 7:30. The program, which is very elaborate, appears elsewhere.

SUCCESS IS ASSURED.

THE BOSTON BALL WILL BE A HUMMER.

Over Twenty-two Hundred Dollars in Hand this Forenoon—Freimann Will Be Caterer.

This morning the Refreshment Committee of the Boston ball opened the bids of caterers, four in number, and awarded the contract to Mr. Freimann of the Portland Hotel. Later the matter was referred to the committee of the whole, and the decision was ratified by a unanimous vote. Mr. Freimann's menu being the most elaborate and his price the lowest. As a new comer in the gastronomic field Mr. Freimann was not out for dollars but reputation, and his plan of procedure seems to be to lay the best table ever seen here at public function and pocket any deficit that may come to him as the price of a fine advertisement. Though some of the other bids were good, the terms of Mr. Freimann's left the Refreshment Committee and the Committee of Arrangements no further choice.

There was some talk in the club rooms this morning about the ball having "no political significance." Some thought it had and others thought it hadn't. Later a leading member of the Government came to the Star office and advised us on that point as follows:

"While it is true that the intended ball is not an official one, it can scarcely be said to have no political significance, as it is the spontaneous act of citizens of Honolulu who favor annexation."

From the Committee on Decoration, Mr. Stratmeyer reported that arrangements had been made to have the entrances to the Palace grounds illuminated, both on King street and Richards street. The interior decorations will be made under the direction of Mrs. G. E. Boardman, whose services have been specially engaged.

This morning Mr. Hassinger, chairman of the Refreshment Committee, bought a thousand lines for the lemonade. It is the sense of the committee that the liquid adjuncts of the ball shall be very light and harmless, lemonade being provided for the total abstainers and claret punch for those who can either use prohibition or let it alone, but who prefer to let it alone on Monday night. There will be no wassail after the Monarch fashion though no one will go hungry and thirsty for want of creature comforts.

The Invitation Committee have been hard at work, six of the members staying at the rooms till after twelve o'clock last night, addressing envelopes, etc. The distribution of invitations will commence this afternoon.

THE EX-PALACE WANTED.

September 19, 1893.

To His Excellency Francis M. Hatch, Vice-President of the Provisional Government—SIR: We, the undersigned citizens of Honolulu, respectfully ask of the Provisional Government the use of the Executive Building for the purpose of giving a farewell reception and ball to the captain and officers of the U. S. S. Boston.

(Signed) P. C. Jones, G. P. Castle, F. J. Lowrey, W. C. Wilder Jr., E. O. White, H. F. Glade, Geo. McLeod, Geo. W. Smith, Hugh Gunn, J. S. McGrew, Theo. F. Lansing, T. J. King, B. F. Dillingham, F. B. McStocker, A. W. Keech, C. T. Rodgers.

THE VICE-PRESIDENT'S REPLY.

HONOLULU, Sept. 20th, 1893.

DEAR SIRS: In reply to your communication of the 19th inst., requesting the use of the Executive Building for a farewell ball to be given by citizens of Honolulu to the Captain and officers of the U. S. S. Boston, the Executive take great pleasure in tendering the building for that purpose.

Respectfully yours, FRANCIS M. HATCH, Chairman of the Executive Council. Messrs. P. C. Jones, G. P. Castle and others, citizens' committee.

HE WOULDN'T CALL.

The Chinese Ex-Minister Declined to See the Ex-Queen.

It has just leaked out, through Chinese sources, that the ex-Queen sent a representative to the China when that vessel was in port, who asked the celestial ex-Minister on board to call on her. The astute old diplomat begged leave, etc., to express his pride and pleasure that so humble a servant, etc., of His Imperial Majesty the Brother of the Sun and Moon and the First Cousin to the Comet, etc., should be so highly and worthily honored, and while assuring her ex-Majesty of his distinguished consideration, he trusted that he might venture to decline the invitation. In other words, he wouldn't call, and the agent of the late sovereign was obliged to bear the sorrowful tidings to Washington Place.

POLICE COURT MATTERS.

Preliminary Examination of the Ewa Murderers Commenced.

Seventeen cases were on this morning's calendar in the District Court, but a number of them were remanded. The trial of Pong Ong and Ah Kee for larceny was fixed for October 2d. The case of Richard Stone, charged with escaping from custody, was called and again remanded.

Akana and L. Richard, charged with assault and battery on a Chinaman, pleaded not guilty and his case was postponed till September 21st. E. Devauschele, charged with assault and battery on Kapa on September 21st, pleaded not guilty and was remanded to the 26th.

FIRE IN THE STEAMER WAIALEALE.

The Boston Finishes Coaling—The Alden Besse's Sailing Postponed.

The sailing of the bark Alden Besse for San Francisco was postponed from today till tomorrow, owing to the lateness of the arrival of 500 bags of rice, which were to complete her cargo. Three hundred of these were received from the Millie Morris this morning and the balance will be on hand today. The Alden Besse has been in port for five weeks, during which time her captain and officers have made many new friends and renewed many pleasant acquaintances.

United States Senator Hoar has introduced a bill in the Senate appropriating $25,500 for the relief of the Hawaiian bark Arctic, for losses sustained in abandoning the business of whale-catching and rescuing 176 seamen in the Arctic Sea.

Tuesday night, while the steamer Waialeale was on her way to Kauai, a lamp was upset in the lamp room and a sewing machine set on fire. The blaze was discovered and extinguished before damage was done to anything but the machine.

A new railing was placed at the end of the dock adjoining the Pilots boarding this morning. To make it permanent it will be necessary to put a row of sharp spikes along the top rail.

The steamer Hawaii arrived last night from Maui. A large portion of her cargo consisted of the sugar mill recently torn down at Huelo, which has been returned to this place.

The schooner Alice Cooke will probably come off the marine railway tomorrow and take ballast, in which trim it is expected she will sail for the Coast next week.

This morning the bark Detroit hauled up to what is known as the new wharf, where she will discharge 300 tons of coal into the steamer Hawaii, for Kahului.

The Waialeale returned last night, but brought no passengers. A part of her cargo consisted of a five-ton roller from the Hanalei mill.

From the activity noticed on the bark Discovery during the morning it appears that she is to begin to take a cargo soon.

The Boston took seventy-five tons of coal this forenoon, which completed her 650 tons.

The steamer Kinaw sailed this afternoon for her usual trip to windward.

The schooner Millie Morris arrived this forenoon from Kauai.

The steamer Kaala arrived last night from Kauai.
